

The Value of Trade

passing through UK ports

These are the key findings of a report commissioned by ABP and prepared by leading transport logistics consultancy, MDS Transmodal.

The report looks at the value of goods passing through UK ports broken down by imports and exports and EU and non-EU trade*.

The objective of the report is to inform the development of policy capable of maximising UK trade, exports and economic growth.

The full version of the report is available for download at:
www.abports.co.uk/About_ABP/Downloads

* Based on available data at July 2016.

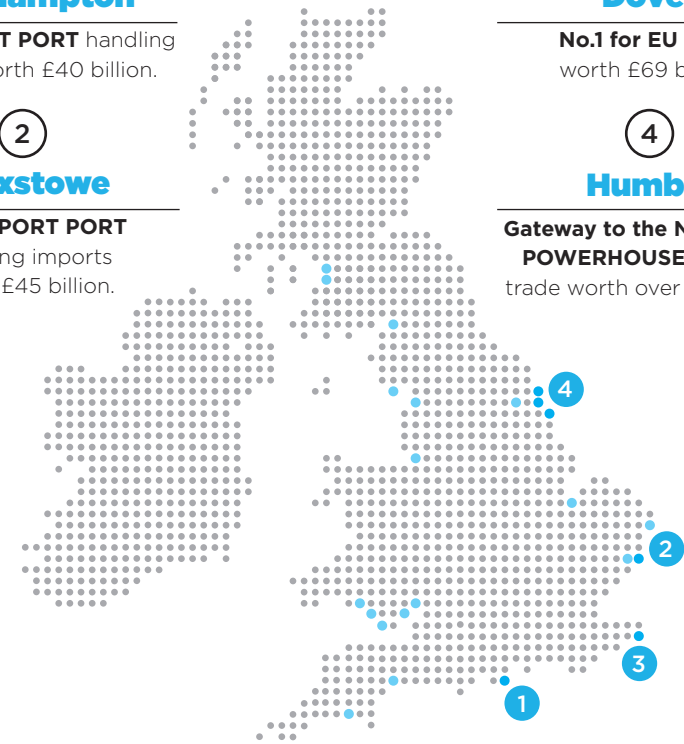

X
 UK sea ports handle an estimated £511 billion worth of goods of which £228 billion were exports.

1
Southampton
 No.1 EXPORT PORT handling exports worth £40 billion.

2
Felixstowe
 No.1 IMPORT PORT handling imports worth £45 billion.

3
Dover
 No.1 for EU trade worth £69 billion.

4
Humber
 Gateway to the NORTHERN POWERHOUSE handling trade worth over £75 billion.

Of the total value of exports of £228 billion, 30% passed through ports within ABP's Statutory Harbour Authority areas.

Southampton

is the UK's
number one
port for exports

to non-EU
countries

at £36 billion,
followed by Felixstowe at £23 billion and
Liverpool at £8 billion.

The
Port of Dover
is the UK's
number one
port for exports
to EU countries

handling trade
worth £33
billion, followed
by Grimsby & Immingham at £19 billion.

The leading
export port
in the UK is Southampton
handling exports
worth £40 billion.

The leading
import port
in the UK is Felixstowe
with imports
worth £45 billion.

Felixstowe handled the highest value of trade overall at £75 billion followed by Southampton at £71 billion and Dover at £69 billion.

Humber ports

handle trade
worth £75 billion,
more than the
Mersey, Tees and Tyne combined.

82%

of the value of Humber trade is handled at ports on the south bank, including Grimsby and Immingham.

The Value of Trade

passing through UK ports

Commissioned by Associated British Ports
and prepared by leading transport logistics consultancy, MDS Transmodal.

www.abports.co.uk